Dear Friends,

I don't know what we are going to do with that Victoria May! She is in charge of our bulletin. Did you see how she placed my picture upside down in the monthly newsletter? We honored her last spring for 18 years and now she thinks she runs the place.

That woman is planning our Purim Spiel for next Monday at 7:00. The rabbi wants to sing some "oldies but goodies", like "ShuShuShushan" and "Oh Once There Was A Wicked, Wicked Man". The Cantorial Soloist/Musical Director/Bulletin Editor insists on John, Paul, George and Ringo's versions of Purim Ditties. Come Monday night and you will quickly learn who is boss around here.

I know. I need to chill out. Perhaps I am cracking under all the stress of Post Katrina Gates of Prayer. I think I might take some of my own advice (at least someone will do that) and attend the Meditation Classes beginning Wednesday night at 8:00.

Happy Purim and Shabbat Shalom,
Rabbi Loewy
